

Press Release: Directorate Change at GYG LTD

30 April 2024

GYG LTD Announces Directorate Change

GYG LTD ("GYG" or the "Company"), a global leader in superyacht services and supplies, today announced a change within its Board structure.

Directorate Change:

Richard King, a Non-Executive Director of the Company, has made the decision to resign from his position, effective April 30, 2024. Richard King joined GYG in 2017 and has played an instrumental role in shaping the Group's strategy during his tenure.

Richard McGuire, Chairman of GYG, expressed gratitude for King's invaluable contributions, stating: "On behalf of the Board and shareholders, I would like to thank Richard for his highly valued contribution to developing Group strategy and his unwavering commitment to the pursuit of excellence. We wish him continued success going forward."

In response, Richard King remarked: "GYG has undergone significant transformation since I joined in 2017, and I wish the business further progress as it navigates its next growth chapter."
